Just a heads up that basically no one is available next week who is currently intimately involved in BENM.
So we're hoping that any DOI questions have already been asked! :)

I will check my email intermittently (or be available by cell), but won't have access to all of our files.

That can work. I will be here, so we should let them know between myself and Monticello/Moab we will do our best.

Aaron,
Unfortunately, I too will be on leave Monday-Wednesday of next week. I will be in the (b) (6) so I won't be able to be of much assistance. Allison and I have been working collaboratively on all of the follow-up questions, at this point, I would suggest that we ask Monticello to provide assistance next week. They are probably in the best position to provide immediate responses to time sensitive questions. I would be happy to talk to Don or Amber if you and Abbie determine that is the best approach.

Cheers,

Hey, Tyler,
Allison will be out on A/L next week, and I'll be in travel status Monday to Wednesday. Would you be able to serve as Utah's POC regarding the National Monuments review next week in case anything comes up?

The follow-up questions from DC have slowed to a trickle this week, and they've been almost completely focused on Bears Ears - I believe the 45-day period ends next Saturday.

Please let me know so we can make sure the lines of communication continue to flow. Thanks,
